

Rebuild Newsletter

December 2014

Working together to create a new Portesbery

Just a quick pictorial update following the site visit this week (more photos have been added to our facebook page). Work is still progressing on the outside and inside of the building and it is looking great! The team will be having a well deserved rest over Christmas and then start back on the site in January.

